IT'S BEEN ACHING

CONVERSATION

Larissa: You keep rubbing your neck. What's going on?

Caio: It's been feeling really stiff since yesterday.

Larissa: Have you done anything to hurt it?

Caio: Not really. I've been spending long hours at my computer, so I think my posture might be causing it.

Larissa: Is it just stiffness, or have you been feeling any pain too?

Caio: I get a sharp pain whenever I turn my head to the right.

Larissa: You should probably take a break from the computer, and get it checked out if it doesn't get better.

Caio: Yeah. I've been ignoring it, but I don't think that's a good idea anymore.
