DREAMS

CONVERSATION

Megan: Remember Jessica?

Ethan: Yeah, of course. The one who was always complaining about the weather?

Megan: That's her. She moved to Portugal last week.

Ethan: Wait, seriously?

Megan: Yep. Quit her job, packed her stuff, and just left.

Ethan: No way. Honestly, if I had the guts, I'd do the same.

Megan: Same here. I saw her post yesterday — she might be working from a café near the beach.

Ethan: Don't show me. I'll end up buying a ticket on the spot.

Megan: Haha. But seriously, it looked so peaceful.

Ethan: Man... if I had a remote job, I'd totally try living abroad for a bit.

Megan: I think about that way too much. If I didn't have rent and bills holding me back, I'd spend a year just traveling.

Ethan: And eating pastéis de nata every morning.

Megan: Obviously. Priorities.

Ethan: What about work though?

Megan: She's freelancing now. Said if it doesn't work out, she'll just come back.

Ethan: That's what I admire — she just took the leap and did it.
