

UNIT
64

HOTEL STAY

CONVERSATION

Guest: Hi, this is room 507. I just checked in and have a couple of quick questions.

Receptionist: Of course! How can I help?

Guest: First, I should have asked for a wake-up call but completely forgot. Could you set one for 6 a.m., please?

Receptionist: Absolutely, I'll arrange that right now. It's best to request wake-up calls earlier at the front desk, but no worries — we're happy to help. Anything else?

Guest: Yes, actually. The minibar's empty — is there any chance it could be restocked?

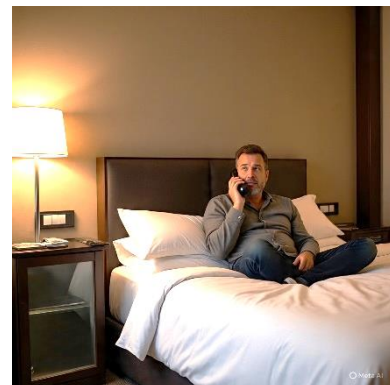

Receptionist: Oh, I'm so sorry about that. I'll have housekeeping take care of it immediately. We should have made sure it was fully stocked before your arrival. If you notice anything else missing, please call us immediately.

Guest: Thanks. Also, I'm thinking of ordering room service tonight. I realize I should have tried it last time I stayed here, but I never got around to it.

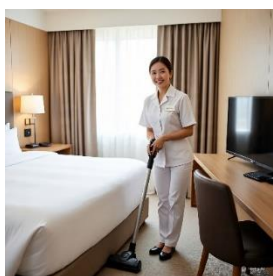

Receptionist: It's definitely worth it! Many guests say you should have to experience it at least once while you're here. And don't forget, all stays include complimentary breakfast in the morning.

Guest: Perfect! Thanks for your help.

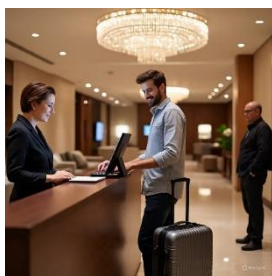

Receptionist: My pleasure. Enjoy your evening, and don't hesitate to reach out if you need anything else.

VOCABULARY

Housekeeping

Check-in

Check-out

Complimentary
breakfast

Mini bar

Front desk

Room service

Hotel key card

Wake-up call

Bellhop

LANGUAGE PRACTICE

UNIT
64

HOTEL STAY

EXERCISE 1

Read each sentence and complete it with a natural result using the should have clause already provided.

- A. I missed the complimentary breakfast. I should have asked for a wake-up call.
- B. _____. We should have checked the mini-bar.
- C. _____. You should have returned your hotel key card.
- D. _____. They should have ordered room service.
- E. _____. She should have spoken to the front desk.

EXERCISE 2

Read each present consequence and write a past action that could have prevented it, using should have + past participle.

- A. I missed the complimentary breakfast. I should have woken up early.
- B. I don't have anything to drink in my room. _____.
- C. The mini bar is empty. _____.
- D. The room isn't cleaned. _____.
- E. I had to pay for extra snacks. _____.

SUMMARY

Form Type	Use	Examples
Affirmative	Talk about past actions that were a good idea but didn't happen (regret, criticism)	I should have requested a wake-up call. They should have checked the mini bar before arrival.
Negative	Talk about past actions that were wrong or not a good idea	You shouldn't have forgotten to ask for extra towels. He shouldn't have left the room without checking out.
Question	Ask about past actions, seeking advice or confirmation	Should I have confirmed my reservation earlier? Should we have asked for room service last night?

EXERCISES ANSWER KEYS

Exercise 1

Answers vary.

Exercise 2

Answers vary.