

UNIT
67

PERSONAL FINANCE

CONVERSATION

Maya: Babe, check out this weekend trip deal... it looks so good.

Jake: Oh wow... should we actually go? I mean, it does look nice, but can we swing it with our budget?

Maya: I think so. It's been forever since we did anything fun like this. And hey, we've got that emergency fund if something really comes up.

Jake: Yeah, but that's the thing—it's for actual emergencies. I don't feel great about dipping into that for a trip.

Maya: Fair point. Maybe we could just pull a little from regular savings instead?

Jake: I'm not against it, but with the bills coming up and that loan, we don't wanna end up strapped for cash.

Maya: Yeah, okay, you're right. So maybe we just figure out how much we can safely take from savings.

Jake: Exactly. I just don't wanna be caught off guard if something unexpected pops up.

Maya: True... I could do a little side hustle on the weekends to help cover it.

Jake: Yeah... maybe I could pick up a bit of a side hustle too. That way we don't risk the emergency money, and we might actually make this trip happen, though it'll take some extra work.

Maya: Okay... yeah, I like that. Seems doable if we both pitch in.

VOCABULARY

Paycheck

Bills

Savings

Interest

PERSONAL BUDGET
INCOME
	JAN	FEB	MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP
Salary	$2,500.00	$2,500.00	$2,500.00
Investment Income	$500.00	$500.00	$500.00
Dividends	$100.00	$100.00	$100.00
Interest	$50.00	$50.00	$50.00
Total	$3,550.00	$3,550.00	$3,550.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00
EXPENSES
	JAN	FEB	MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP
Household	$1,200.00	$1,200.00	$1,200.00
Utilities	$150.00	$150.00	$150.00
Food	$300.00	$300.00	$300.00
Transport	$100.00	$100.00	$100.00
Entertainment	$200.00	$200.00	$200.00
Healthcare	$100.00	$100.00	$100.00
Total	$2,050.00	$2,050.00	$2,050.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00
SAVINGS
	JAN	FEB	MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP
Emergency Fund	$1,000.00	$1,000.00	$1,000.00
Retirement	$500.00	$500.00	$500.00
Total	$1,500.00	$1,500.00	$1,500.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00

Budget

Side hustle

Emergency fund

Loan

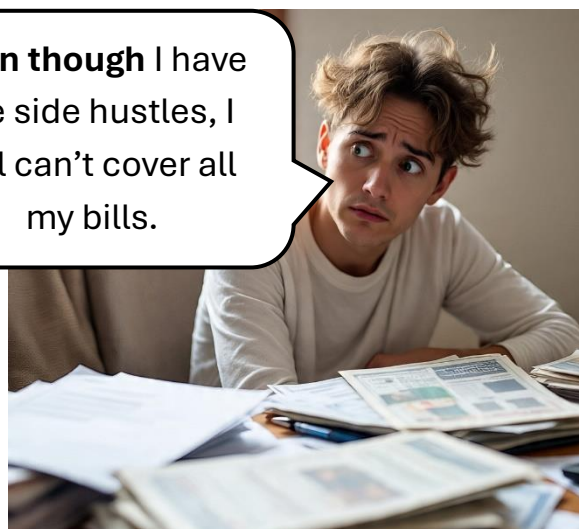

LANGUAGE PRACTICE

Concessive clauses

Although I spent some savings on a trip, I have enough for my bills.

Even though I have five side hustles, I still can't cover all my bills.

UNIT
67

PERSONAL FINANCE

EXERCISE 1

Complete the first part of each sentence is missing. Complete it using although/even though/though so it makes sense with the second part.

- A. _____, I still have money for my bills.
- B. _____, I managed to save part of my paycheck.
- C. _____, I still can't pay all my bills.
- D. _____, I sometimes run out of money before payday.
- E. _____, I was worried when my car broke down.

EXERCISE 2

Complete the second part to fully express the meaning of the concessive clause.

- A. Even though I saved a lot, _____
- B. Although I got my paycheck, _____
- C. Even though I took a loan, _____
- D. Even though I have a side hustle, _____
- E. Although I have an emergency fund, _____

SUMMARY

Connector	Structure	Use	Examples
Although	Although + subject + verb, + main clause	Introduces a contrast that is unexpected but not extremely surprising	Although I got my paycheck, I didn't have enough for groceries and rent.
Though	Though + subject + verb, + main clause	Similar to although; slightly more informal	Though I budget carefully, I sometimes run out of money for extra activities.
Even though	Even though + subject + verb, + main clause	Introduces a stronger, more surprising or extreme contrast	Even though I have three side hustles, I still can't cover my monthly rent.

EXERCISES ANSWER KEYS

Exercise 1

Answers vary.

Exercise 2

Answers vary.