

UNIT
78

BUSINESS GOALS

CONVERSATION

Laura: Let's make sure we're aligned before anything goes to the board. If sales hold steady, we will have reached our revenue targets by December.

Julian: That's how I see it too. And with next month's campaign, by the end of the quarter we will have increased market share a little — unless competitors shift strategy, in which case the effect may have been smaller.

Ethan: Right. And by midyear, we will have implemented the new initiatives in most teams. But we may not have improved employee satisfaction everywhere by then. Some groups will need more time to adjust.

Maya: Agreed. Still, with the changes already in motion, by year-end we will have strengthened company culture in several areas. It won't be uniform, but the shift may have become noticeable by that point.

Laura: And communication?

Julian: If the cross-team briefings stay consistent, by year-end we'll have enhanced communication between the main departments. Not perfect — but definitely better than where we are now.

Laura: Alright. That paints a realistic picture: solid progress where we're confident, and reasonable expectations where things may take longer.

VOCABULARY

Reach a milestone

Strengthen customer relationships

Implement initiatives

Increase
market share

Reach revenue targets

Enhance communication

Improve employee satisfaction

Strengthen company culture

LANGUAGE PRACTICE

Future perfect

By year-end, we will have implemented the new initiatives across most units.

Right, but we may not have improved employee satisfaction in the high-pressure teams yet.

We will have implemented the new initiatives across most units by...

Year-end

We may not have improved employee satisfaction in the high-pressure teams by...

BUSINESS GOALS

EXERCISE 1

Complete the gap by using each item from the vocabulary of this unit once.

- A. By July, the organization will have _____ improved employee satisfaction _____ in several critical teams after adjusting workloads.
- B. By year-end, we will have _____ in at least two major customer segments.
- C. By midyear, most departments will have _____ aimed at modernizing how they operate.
- D. By next quarter, the project team will have _____ in its long-term development plan.
- E. By the end of the year, leadership programs will have _____ across various departments.
- F. By December, the support team will have _____ with several key accounts.
- G. By the close of Q4, the company will have _____ after the steady growth in subscription renewals.
- H. By the time the annual report is released, all major divisions will have _____ due to the new briefing structure.

EXERCISE 2

Complete with will have, won't have, or may (not) have + past participle.

- A. By July, we _____ will have finished (finish) the training rollout.
- B. By December, the team _____ (not meet) the target — it's impossible at this pace.
- C. By year-end, we _____ (fix) most workflow issues.
- D. By midyear, some teams _____ (not adapt) — I'm not sure they'll adjust that fast.
- E. By 2026, the company _____ (grow) into new regions.
- F. By the next board meeting, we _____ (identify) the main issues; it's likely.

SUMMARY

Form	Meaning	Structure	Examples
Positive	The action will be completed before a future time.	will have + past participle	We will have finished the report by Friday.
Negative	The action will NOT be completed ; it's certain.	won't have + past participle	They won't have met the target — it's impossible now.
Uncertain	The action may or may not be completed ; unsure.	may (not) have + past participle	Some teams may not have adapted by midyear. A few details may have changed by then.

EXERCISES ANSWER KEYS

Exercise 1

- A. improved employee satisfaction
- B. increased market share
- C. implemented new initiatives
- D. reached a milestone
- E. strengthened company culture
- F. strengthened customer relationships
- G. reached revenue targets
- H. enhanced communication

Exercise 2

- A. will have finished
- B. won't have met
- C. will have fixed
- D. may not have adapted
- E. will have grown
- F. may have identified