8) _____

9) _____

10) _____

DIRECTIONS: Then, IN PAIRS, choose one animal to write about. Discuss with your partner but do NOT write the name of the animal in your description. You should think about:

- Where does the animal live? _____
- What does the animal eat? _____
- What is the animal like? _____
- Is the animal dangerous? _____
- What sound does the animal make? _____

Now take turns reading your descriptions while your classmates try to guess which animal you described. The person that guesses your description first, gets to read his/her description to the class.

IF TIME ALLOWS: The teacher chooses an animal (any animal) and tells one student. The other students must ask YES/NO questions ONLY to discover the animal. The first one to guess correctly chooses a different animal (any animal) and the other students ask YES/NO questions ONLY to guess the profession.

e.g.: "Bird" Q: Is this animal dangerous? A: No. | Q: Does this animal eat grass? A: No. Q: Does this animal have wings? A: Yes. | Q: Is it a bird? A: YES!
