

UNIT 32

MOVIES

CONVERSATION

Anna: What kind of movie do you want? Horror, comedy, or drama?

Tom: Not horror. We watched "The Exorcism" last week, and it was very frightening. I was too scared.

Anna: Me too. I don't want to feel scared again tonight.

Tom: How about a comedy? "Click" with Adam Sandler is really entertaining. It made me laugh a lot.

Anna: That sounds good.

Tom: Or a drama, like "Miracle in Cell No. 7". It's very moving.

Anna: That movie made me feel touched, but I'm not ready to cry tonight.

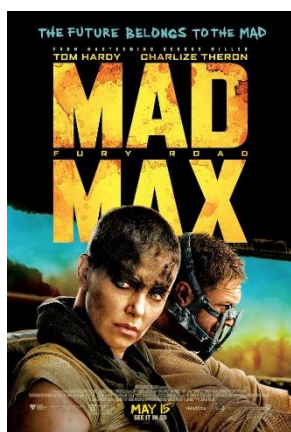

Tom: Okay. What about "Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire"? It's exciting and fun.

Anna: Yes! I like that. Let's watch it.

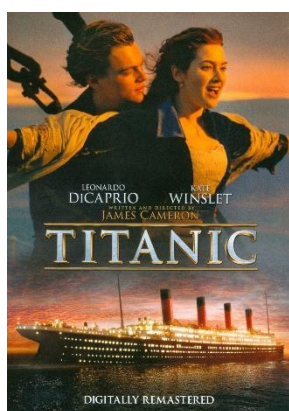

VOCABULARY

Movie genres

Science Fiction

Romance

Animation

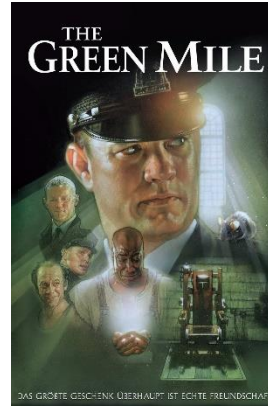

Comedy

Action

Adventure

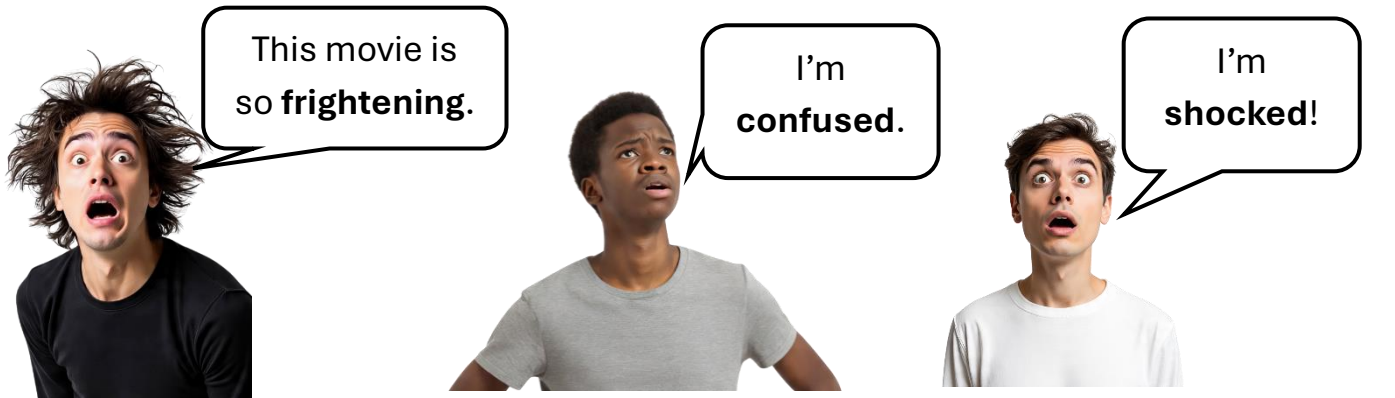

Drama

Horror

LANGUAGE PRACTICE

EXERCISE 1

A. Anna: What kind of movie do you want? _____
_____?

B. Tom: Not horror. We watched "The Exorcism" last week, and it was very _____. I was too scared.

Anna: Me too. I don't want to feel scared again tonight.

C. Tom: How about a comedy? "Click" with Adam Sandler is really _____. It made me laugh a lot.

Anna: That sounds good.

Tom: Or a drama, like "Miracle in Cell No. 7". It's very moving.

D. Anna: That movie _____, but I'm not ready to cry tonight.

E. Tom: Okay. What about "Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire"? It's _____ and fun.

Anna: Yes! I like that. Let's watch it.

EXERCISE 2

Complete the sentences:

A. The movie was really touching. I almost cried. (touch)

B. I felt _____ when the dog died. (shock)

C. That scene was too _____ for me. I had to close my eyes. (frighten)

D. She looked _____ because she didn't understand the story. (confuse)

E. The funny parts were really _____! I laughed a lot. (entertain)

F. I was _____ the whole time. Nothing happened. (bore)

SUMMARY

Structure	What it does	Examples
adjective + - ing	describes a thing or situation that makes someone feel something	This movie is frightening . I love comedy movies. They're so entertaining . Science-fiction movies are confusing .
adjective + - ed	describes how a person feels because of something	I am so frightened ! We were really entertained . She felt confused at the end.

EXERCISES ANSWER KEYS

Exercise 1

- A. Horror, comedy, or drama
- B. frightening
- C. entertaining
- D. made me feel touched
- E. exciting

Exercise 2

- A. touching
- B. shocked
- C. frightened
- D. confused
- E. entertained
- F. bored