CONVERSATION

Patrícia: So, what do you do for a living?

Pedro: I work in IT. I fix computers and help people when something doesn't work.

Patrícia: Oh, I see. What's it like to work in IT?

Pedro: It's pretty good, but it can be stressful when everything crashes at the same time. What about you?

Patrícia: I'm a designer. I work in the marketing department.

Pedro: That's awesome. What's it like to work in marketing?

Patrícia: It's fun! I get to design stuff and help out with ads and campaigns.

Pedro: Sounds cool. I'm not good at creative stuff, though.

Patrícia: And I'm not good with computers.
