WORKING FROM HOME

Working from home sounds like freedom—no commute, no dress code, no one watching your screen. But it also raises an uncomfortable question: if you're "always reachable," are you ever really off work? Remote work can feel like a lifestyle upgrade, until your kitchen becomes your office, your breaks become shorter, and your day quietly stretches past the time you normally would have gone home. So is working from home a better way to work... or just a smarter way for work to follow you everywhere?

Watch the following video and discuss on the efficiency of working remotely.

Watch the following video and discuss on morality of remote work.
