

LISTENING
#20Teacher's Guide

SCRIPT: RUNNING IN THE CENTRAL PARK

Jenny: You okay?

Rob: Me? Never better.

Jenny: It's beautiful here isn't it? I think this is my favorite place in New York.

Rob: Yeah, it's great.

Jenny: So how's it all going? are you happy you came?

Rob: To central park at 7:15 in the morning?

Jenny: To New York, Rob.

Rob: Yeah, of course I'm happy. It's fantastic really.

Jenny: You aren't just saying that?

Rob: No, I mean it.

Jenny: You need to get in shape, Rob.

Rob: I know I'm a bit tired of eating out all the time. It isn't good for my figure.

Jenny: it's the restaurants you go to. Why don't you come over to my place after work? I can make you something a little healthier.

Rob: I'd really like that thanks.

Jenny: So, how do you feel now? You ready to go again?

Rob: Oh yes, I'm ready for anything.

Jenny: Are you sure you're okay?

Rob: Absolutely.

Jenny: Okay, we'll only go around two more times.

Rob: Two? Excellent.

Answer Key

Audio Comprehension Questions:

1. Like he's never been better, but with an ironic tone, indicating that he's really tired.
2. She likes the place a lot; it's her favorite int the city.
3. He says he is happy and thinks it's fantastic.
4. She says he needs to get in shape.
5. Because it isn't good for his figure/health.
6. She offers to cook him something healthier at her place.
7. b) Confident
8. Two more times.

Reading Comprehension Questions

1. Millenium Park in Chicago.
2. Feeling more awake, energetic, and ready for the day.
3. Eating healthier and having more energy.

Idioms

“Never better” = feeling very good, happy, and excited

Rob says: “Me? Never better.”

“It isn't good for my figure” = it's not healthy for my body or shape

Rob: “I'm a bit tired of eating out all the time. It isn't good for my figure.”

“Get in shape” = become healthier or fitter

Jenny: “You need to get in shape, Rob.”