

LISTENING
#30Teacher's Guide

SCRIPT: FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Beata: That's okay. I was just confused for a moment. Nice to meet you.

Alex: You too. I hear you lived in Tokyo. Where exactly did you live?

Beata: Sudobashi. Do you know it?

Alex: Yes. Near the baseball park. I lived there myself for a while. Loved it. How long were you in Japan for?

Beata: Five years. When were you in Tokyo?

Alex: 2013 to 2015. About 18 months.

Beata: What did you do there?

Alex: Teaching English, mainly.

Beata: Teaching. Interesting. What did you like best about it?

Alex: Mainly the food.

Daniel: This is Jessica Scott. She's our CEO.

Beata: Hello, Ms. Scott. Nice to meet you.

Jessica: Please call me Jessica. I hear you worked with one of our main competitors in Tokyo.

Beata: You mean MediLink.

Jessica: You must have learned a lot while you were there.

Beata: Absolutely. But I'm very keen to learn even more here.

Jessica: Well, you're going to be working with a great team. Daniel and Alex really know their stuff. How about we chat in a couple of weeks' time to touch base.

Beata: Sounds great. Thank you, Jessica.

Jessica: Nice to have you on board.

Audio Comprehension Questions:

1. b) they both used to live in Japan
2. Five years
3. Taught English
4. The food
5. Jessica
6. They really know their stuff
7. Very interested / enthusiastic
8. She suggests they chat to touch base in a couple of weeks.

Reading Comprehension Questions

1. They receive many employees with international experience
2. Teamwork energy
3. He valued open communication and giving feedback.

Idioms/Useful Expressions

“Touch base” = to make quick contact to share an update or confirm something.

Jessica says: “Chat in a couple of weeks’ time to touch base.”

“On board” = officially part of the team

Jessica says: “Nice to have you on board.”