

UNIT 41

EATING OUT

CONVERSATION

Waiter: Good evening! Welcome to Prelude Kitchen and Bar.

Beatriz: Hi! Could we have a table for two, please?

Waiter: Of course! Would you like to sit inside or outside?

Carlos: Inside, please.

Waiter: Here's your menu. Can I get you something to drink while you decide?

Beatriz: Could I have sparkling water, please?

Carlos: I'll have a soda, please.

Waiter: Sure! I'll be right back.

Waiter: Are you ready to order?

Carlos: Yes. I'd like the grilled chicken with rice and beans.

Beatriz: And could I get the vegetarian lasagna, please?

Waiter: Absolutely. Would you like any appetizers?

Beatriz: I'm not very hungry. What about you, Carlos?

Carlos: No, thanks. I think we'll skip appetizers tonight.

Waiter: All right! Be right back!

Waiter: Would you like some dessert?

Beatriz: Yes, I'll have the chocolate cake.

Carlos: And I'll have the pudding, please.

Waiter: Great choices! I'll bring those right away.

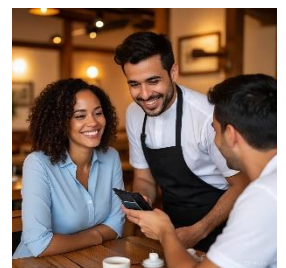

Beatriz: Mmm, this cake is delicious!

Carlos: Same here — this pudding is amazing.

Waiter: Excuse me! How did you like everything so far?

Carlos: Yes, everything was really good. Could we have the bill, please?

Waiter: I'm glad you enjoyed your meal! Here it is.

VOCABULARY

Appetizer

Main dish

Dessert

Bill

Menu

Host

Waiter

Buffet

Tip

Napkin

LANGUAGE PRACTICE

Solicitation

Could I have a soda, please?

Sure!

Can I have a chocolate cake, please?

Absolutely!

Offering

Would you like some water?

Yes, please!

No, thanks!

UNIT
41

EATING OUT

EXERCISE 1

Fill in the blanks using can/could or would.

- A. _____ Can _____ I see the drinks menu, please?
- B. _____ you bring us two glasses of water?
- C. _____ you like to order drinks?
- D. _____ I order the steak without onions?
- E. _____ you like to seat outside?

EXERCISE 2

Use can / could to make polite solicitation using the verbs/phrases below.

- A. see the menu -> _____ Could I see the menu, please? _____
- B. bring the bill -> _____
- C. have a table by the window -> _____
- D. get a glass of water -> _____
- E. have chicken -> _____

SUMMARY

Structure	Example	Use
Can I/we + base verb?	Can I see the menu, please?	Solicitation
Could I/we + base verb?	Could we have a soda, please?
Would you like + noun?	Would you like a drink?	Offering

EXERCISES ANSWER KEYS

Exercise 1

- A. Can/Could
- B. Can/Could
- C. Would
- D. Can/Could
- E. Would

Exercise 2

- A. Can/Could I see the menu, please?
- B. Can/Could you bring the bill, please?
- C. Can/Could we have a table by the window, please?
- D. Can/Could I get a glass of water, please?
- E. Can/Could I have the chicken, please?