

UNIT 48

POTS AND PANS

CONVERSATION

Luana: Do you know what time everyone's showing up?

Caio: They might arrive around 8 or 9. They won't take forever.

Luana: Cool, let's get things rolling before they get here.

Caio: Okay, so let's get started with the pasta. Do you know where the big pot is?

Luana: Bottom cupboard, I think.

Caio: Found it. I'll get the pasta going.

Luana: Perfect. I can make some bruschetta as an appetizer.

Caio: Um, that sounds good.

Luana: As soon as I find a cookie sheet...

Caio: It may be in the oven, you know, where we usually keep them.

Luana: Got it. I'll line it with foil—makes cleanup a breeze.

Caio: Smart idea. Less scrubbing later.

Caio: Now, for the sauce... do we have a saucepan?

Luana: It might be somewhere in those cupboards.

Caio: Ah, there it is. Thanks.

Luana: By the way, what do you think we could make for dessert?

Caio: Muffins. Safe bet—nobody says no to muffins.

Luana: Yeah, true. I'll get to it. Have you seen the muffin pan?

Caio: It doesn't seem to be here. Where could it be?

Luana: Hold on...Oh, here it is! Right in front of us!

Caio: Oh, I hadn't seen that. Anyway, now we're all set. It's show time!

VOCABULARY

Frying pan

Saucepan

Pot

Muffin pan

Loaf pan

Tube pan

Round pan

Cookie sheet

LANGUAGE PRACTICE

Possibility modals

I can't find the frying pan. Where could it be?

I'm not sure. It might be in the sink.

I'm also not sure, but I think it may be in the cupboard.

I don't know either. But I think it could be in the oven.

UNIT 47

POTS AND PANS

EXERCISE 1

Fill in the blanks with may / might / could.

- A. She might use the tube pan to bake the sponge cake.
- B. He _____ boil the pasta in the sauce pan.
- C. They _____ fry the eggs in the frying pan.
- D. We _____ make blueberry muffins in the muffin pan.
- E. You _____ bake the banana bread in the loaf pan.

EXERCISE 2

Complete the missing forms (affirmative, question, negative) using might, may, or could.

1. Affirmative: The cake might look good in the tube pan.
 Question: _____
 Negative: _____
2. Question: Could she use the saucepan for the soup?
 Affirmative: _____
 Negative: _____
3. Negative: He may not need the frying pan for this dish.
 Affirmative: _____
 Question: _____
4. Affirmative: They could use the muffin pan for cupcakes.
 Question: _____
 Negative: _____
5. Question: Might the bread be in the loaf pan already?
 Affirmative: _____
 Negative: _____

SUMMARY

Modal	Structure	Use	Examples
Might / May / Could	Question: Might / May / Could + subject + verb? Affirmative: Subject + might / may / could + verb Negative: Subject + might / may / could + not + verb	To express possibility	Question: Might we use the loaf pan for this cake? Affirmative: We could use the muffin pan for breakfast muffins. Negative: She may not need the saucepan for the sauce.

EXERCISES ANSWER KEYS

Exercise 1

Any modal can be used.

Exercise 2

1. The cake might look good the tube pan. /
Might the cake look good in the tube pan? /
The cake might not look good in the tube pan.
2. She could use the saucepan for the soup. /
Could she use the saucepan for the soup? /
She could not use the saucepan for the soup.
3. He may need the frying pan for this dish. /
May he need the frying pan for this dish? / He may not need the frying pan for this dish.
4. They could use the muffin pan for cupcakes. /
Could they use the muffin pan for cupcakes?
/ They could not use the muffin pan for cupcakes.
5. The bread might be in the loaf pan already. /
Might the bread be in the loaf pan already? /
The bread might not be in the loaf pan already.