

UNIT 49

LIFE ADVENTURES

CONVERSATION

Camila: You know what? Life's short—we should be out there doing some crazy stuff.

Thiago: Haha, facts. Like what?

Camila: I don't know... have you ever skydived?

Thiago: Oh, yeah, I have. Totally nuts, uh. You?

Camila: Me? No way. I've barely done anything that extreme... maybe a couple of paragliding trips.

Thiago: Paragliding is still wild, though. I've never tried it. How was it?

Camila: Honestly... insane. But jumping out of a plane? That's way beyond me.

Thiago: You definitely should. I've taken a few friends skydiving. They freaked out, but loved it afterwards.

Camila: Haha, I can totally picture that. Okay, what about scuba diving?

Thiago: I've done that! A few spots in Brazil and Mexico. The underwater world is unreal.

Camila: No way. I've only snorkeled —never gone deep enough to spot the big guys.

Thiago: You'd love it. I've also tried bungee jumping once... never again.

Camila: Really? I don't think I could... too scary.

Thiago: Yeah, it's either terrifying or the best feeling ever. Hey, maybe we could plan something together—start small and work our way up.

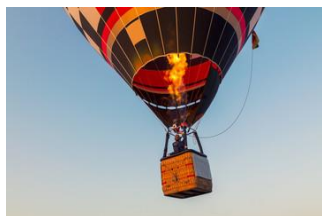

Camila: That actually sounds fun. I guess I've got a lot more to try.

Thiago: Exactly! Life's too short not to.
