

UNIT 55

JOB INTERVIEW

CONVERSATION

Interviewer: Thanks for coming in today. Can you tell me a bit about your experience?

Candidate: Of course! I'm experienced in managing teams, and my résumé highlights my previous roles and projects.

Interviewer: That's good. What are your main strengths?

Candidate: I'm good at solving problems and familiar with using Excel. I also work well under pressure.

Interviewer: And what about your weaknesses?

Candidate: I'm still improving my time management, but I've been interested in learning new strategies to stay more organized.

Interviewer: Sounds good. Why do you think we should hire you?

Candidate: I'm capable of leading meetings when needed, I get along well with my teammates, and I'm motivated to help the team succeed.

Interviewer: That's promising. Have you ever applied for a similar position before?

Candidate: Yes, I have. I actually learned a lot from that experience, and it helped me grow professionally.
