

UNIT 58

WORK PAY

CONVERSATION

Sam: Hey Tom, hey Maya. How's everything going today?

Tom: Hey Sam. Uh... it's already the fifth business day of the month, and I still haven't seen my overtime pay come through. I'm worried about missing it.

Maya: Yeah, same here. And my transport allowance hasn't hit my account either. I was considering asking about it earlier, but I wasn't sure who to check with.

Sam: Hmm... sounds like there might've been a small glitch in the payroll system that caused a delay. It happens sometimes.

Tom: I see. I just don't want to risk missing any payment.

Maya: Exactly. It's stressful, especially when you're trying to plan your expenses for the month.

Sam: Totally understandable. Don't worry — I'll make sure both the overtime and the transport allowance get processed by the end of the week. You can manage to check your accounts then.

Tom: Alright, that helps a lot. Do you know if the performance bonuses are still scheduled for the end of the month?

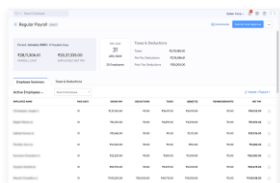

Sam: Yep, bonuses are set to go out during the last week of the month. I hope everyone will receive theirs without any issues.

Maya: Perfect. That's a relief. I'll stop worrying about it now. Thanks, Sam.

Tom: Yeah, really appreciate it. I'll double-check my account once it's processed.

VOCABULARY

Payroll

Salary

Meal allowance

Transport allowance

Bonus

Overtime pay

Sales commission

Health insurance

LANGUAGE PRACTICE

Verbs + infinitive (to)

I hope to receive my salary soon — it's already the fifth business day.

I understand. We'll try to process all payments by tomorrow.

Verbs followed by infinitive
(to + verb)

promise, plan, hope,
offer, succeed, refuse,
fail

Verbs + gerund (ing)

I miss receiving consistent feedback on my performance.

You're right — I'm considering proposing a regular feedback routine for the whole team.

Verbs followed by gerund
(verb + -ing)

avoid, consider, deny,
stop, risk, delay, miss

WORK PAY

EXERCISE 1

Use the words in the box to fill in the blanks. Each word can be used only once.

Vocabulary: salary, bonus, payroll, commission, health insurance, transport allowance, meal allowance, overtime

- A. He works extra hours every week and earns a lot of _____.
- B. The company gave a _____ to employees who met their targets.
- C. There might have been some sort of error. My name is not in the _____.
- D. Sales staff earn _____ based on the number of products they sell.
- E. All full-time employees have _____ provided by the company.
- F. Staff receive a _____ to cover commuting costs.
- G. Employees can get a _____ when they work during lunch hours.
- H. Many employees dislike working _____ because it takes up personal time.

EXERCISE 2

Complete with the correct verb (-ing or infinitive)

- A. The employee avoided _____ working (work) extra hours on Friday.
- B. She promised _____ (submit) her bonus report on time.
- C. They considered _____ (apply) for a raise this month.
- D. He refused _____ (work) on the weekend without extra pay.
- E. The team stopped _____ (calculate) the commissions after the system crashed.
- F. She hopes _____ (receive) her transport allowance this week.
- G. He denied _____ (take) the extra meal allowance by mistake.
- H. They succeeded _____ (get) the overtime approved for everyone.

SUMMARY

Verbs	Examples
-ing (gerund): avoid, consider, deny, stop, risk, delay, miss, postpone	- I avoid working late on Fridays. - She considered asking for a raise.
Infinitive (to + verb): promise, plan, hope, offer, succeed, refuse, fail, manage, intend	- The manager promised to approve the bonus. - They plan to pay the overtime next week.

EXERCISES ANSWER KEYS

Exercise 1

- A. overtime
- B. bonus
- C. payroll
- D. commission
- E. health insurance
- F. transport allowance
- G. meal allowance
- H. overtime

Exercise 2

- A. working
- B. to submit
- C. applying
- D. to work
- E. calculating
- F. to receive
- G. taking
- H. to get